

Dr. Harley A. Rotbart is Professor and Vice Chairman of Pediatrics at the University of Colorado School of Medicine where he has been on the full time faculty for 25 years. He has also coached youth baseball and basketball for the past 13 years, for the past 6 years coaching varsity high school baseball. The author brings his unique perspective as pediatrician, teacher, kids baseball coach, and parent to this book of 101 life lessons. As an internationally recognized pediatric specialist and professor, Dr. Harley Rotbart has been named to Best Doctors in America every year since 1996. As a kids baseball coach, from T-ball through high school, Coach Harley has studied the fine points of a fine game. He has used baseball to guide his players, his patients, and his own kids in everything from homework, humility and helping others, to dating, driving and drugs. Dr. Rotbart has authored more than 200 medical and scientific publications, but this is the best baseball book he has ever written!

Harley A. Rotbart, M.D.

Professor and Vice Chairman of Pediatrics

Professor of Microbiology

Pediatric Infectious Diseases

University of Colorado School of Medicine

303-315-4621

harley.rotbart@uchsc.edu